NUMBER 135.

REAL ESTATE CHANGES HANDS

W. H. EBEBY PURCHASES R. P. FORD PLACE WILL PUT LOTS ON MARKET.

For sometime a deal has been on foot involving the sixteen-acre place of R. P. Ford east of the Katy railroad. It has finally been consummated, and W. H. Ebey now owns the tract in question. He will at once plat it into residence lots, clean up the ground, and begin the building of sidewalks. The lots will then be put on the market, and being one of the most desirable locations in the city, will doubtless find a ready sale. Ada continues to grow in every quarter of the town and the new addition is really needed to accommodate those who desire to build homes. In fact, during the past five years the demand for houses has always been greater than the supply.

PROHIBITION LAW

GIVEN A JOLT

Oklahoma City, Sept. 9.—That special state enforcement officers can only confiscate liquor found in alleged "joints" and have no legal right to confiscate furniture or lawful articles of merchandise, was the holding of Judge Oldfield of the superior court today, in granting a temporary injunction against further interference by state enforcement officers, C. Caunill, and deputies against C. Leach and his cigar and pool room. Leach alleged that not only was liquor confiscated but that the enforcement officers broke up tables, tore paper from the walls and otherwise wrecked his place of business. State Enforcement Officers W. J. Caudill and two deputies had gone to the place and besides taking what liquor was found broke up the pool tables, tore paper from the walls and locked the doors, leaving the electric fan running, according to the defendant. Judge Oldfield ordered the officers to return the key to the place to Leach. The judge also ordered that Leach be not further molested in the operation of his pool room or any other lawful business.

afternoon under the auspices of the British post office. The points of the departure and arrival was respectively the Hendon Aerodrome and Windsor Castle, the distance being somewhat under a score of miles.

The aerial mail experiment was undertaken to demonstrate the practicability of this means of letter transit when war or strikes render unavailable the ordinary train service.

Four airmen piloting the monoplanes and two biplanes were engaged in the work. Upwards of 100,000 postal packets constituted the first delivery. King George was so interested in the service that he gave his permission to the aerial postmen to alight on the lawn of Windsor Castle.

The first postal aviator to reach Windsor Castle from Hendon made the trip in eighteen minutes.

DAZED BY SIGHT OF MODERN IMPROVEMENTS

Indianapolis, Sept. 11.—Two life-term convicts collapsed from nervous excitement caused by riding in an automobile and the sight of trolley cars when E. J. Fogarty, warden of the state prison, took them for a ten-mile jaunt through Michigan City and the surrounding country according to a report made by the warden to Gov. Marshall today.

One of the men had been within the walls of the prison forty years and the other thirty-five. They were awestruck by the buildings more than four stories high, and shivered at the speed and mystery of the motor car, the warden said, and he had to cut short the tour and return his charges to the prison.

DOES ADA WANT CREOSOTE PLANT?

Walter C. Murphy, Promoter of Salisaw-Lawton Railroad, Says Road Will Be Built—Wants Site for Creosote Plant.

Some months ago Walter C. Murphy a railroad promoter, made a proposition to include Ada on the line of the railroad from Salisaw to Lawton. The city made him an offer of a substantial bonus, but nothing had been heard from Mr. Murphy for sometime until today. He now writes that he is ready to begin building the road and also has an additional offer to make the city.

The new enterprise is a creosoting plant where the ties and timbers of his own and other roads will be treated. He intimated that something like 400 men may be employed. He wants 160 acres donated for the site of the plant and a cash bonus also.

The matter will be taken up tomorrow by the Chamber of Commerce and an immediate answer given Mr. Murphy.

WHAT DOES ADA OWE THE KATY?

Katy Agent, Like the Parrot, Talks Too Much—Tries to Work Up Sentiment Against the News. A Few Plain Facts.

Sometime ago the News in advocating the removal of the Frisco shops to Ada, suggested that as an inducement to the road to make such change, the business men might agree to increase their shipping via the Frisco. It was not an original idea with us; it had been mentioned a number of times before by business men and was brought up at the meeting held shortly after the article appeared. We had thought nothing more of it and would probably not have had occasion to refer to it again soon had it not come to our ears that the little fellow at the Katy depot who wears the cap of the agent has been making quite a fuss about it, going about among the business men telling them how rotten the article was and what a rotten sheet the News is.

Now the policy of the News is usually very pacific, but it has never been a part of our policy to quit under fire, so since the matter has been thus stirred up, the paper will have several things to say before we are through with it.

What does Ada owe the Katy, anyway? What has it ever done for the town? The writer is informed that in the earlier days of the town, the Frisco was not very favorably disposed towards Ada. However, that time has passed, and during the past few years it has given Ada as good treatment as any other place on the line. During the three years the writer was secretary of the 25,000 club he received two or three hundred inquiries from prospective immigrants to this country, most of whom stated that Ada had been recommended to them by the Frisco. Only two inquiries did we ever receive which said that the Katy had mentioned Ada. Does that look like that road had any special love for the town? The Frisco industrial department kept in close touch at all times and was continually inquiring how it might render assistance in locating new industries here. Only within the last year did the Katy ever make one such inquiry.

Furthermore, the Frisco has always shown a disposition to carry out orders of the council, while the Katy has always treated such orders with contempt. Three or four years ago the council ordered the roads to place arc lights at certain crossings. The Frisco readily complied and has been paying for its lights ever since, but until this good day the Katy has absolutely refused to take any notice of the ordinance, and rather than expose the citizens to further danger, the council finally placed a light at the Main street crossing. This is not right. The Katy should be forced to come across just as the Frisco did. At a recent meeting of the council the Frisco was ordered to open 14th street cross its right of way, and the Katy to open 10th street for the convenience of the citizens of the east side. The first named will doubtless comply, just as it did in the case of the lights and the concrete bridge on West Main street, but unless the city government gets busy, the Katy will doubtless show its usual contemptuous indifference to its order. For once the city should go after the road and make it come across.

In view of these incidents, does it seem that Ada is under any special obligations to the Katy? We fail to see it that way.

CAMPBELL MAY SUCCEED BAILEY

Austin, Tex., Sept. 11.—The general impression here tonight is that former Governor Campbell will be a candidate for the United States senate to succeed Senator Bailey. That impression has been created by the arrival of Mr. Campbell and his conference with such friends as Jewel P. Lightfoot, J. R. Bowman, Chas. B. White and others. Tomorrow he will see Judge W. F. Ramsey and other men.

Mr. Campbell himself is unwilling to make any definite announcement.

He says that he is receiving hundreds of letters urging him to run for the senate, but there are many matters to be considered and there are other things to be looked after in Texas which are of vast importance. One could easily infer that he speaks of opposition to O. B. Colquitt for governor and his conference with W. F. Ramsey and Jewel P. Lightfoot, two possibilities, as opposing candidates in his own estimation, indicates this more fully. Mr. Campbell also says that whether or not he is a candidate for any office next year, he will be active in Texas politics and at this time he seems to be merely sizing up the situation. He will attend the prohibition meeting at Dallas Saturday.

PROHIBITION ELECTION IN MAINE TODAY

Portland, Maine, Sept. 10.—Estimates tonight on the vote tomorrow on the question of repealing the prohibition amendment are no closer together than yesterday. They vary from 5,000 to 10,000 majority for repeal to an extreme of 13,000 for reaffirmation of the principle that has made Maine famous.

Both sides appear to be confident of success. Frederick G. Fassett, secretary of the Non-partisan Local Self Government League, composed of democrats and republicans who favor repeal and his associates at headquarters, feel certain that a substantial majority of the people, at least 5,000 will declare against prohibition.

On the other hand, George W. Norton, secretary of the no-license movement, also made up of democrats and republicans, states positively that the majority against repeal will be around 13,000. Both estimates are based upon the return of canvassers. The managers of the "wet" campaign in Portland look for a total vote of about 125,000. The leaders in Bangor, from which the campaign in Eastern Maine has been handled, do not expect a total vote of more than 100,000.

The last day of the campaign was unique. In this city, Bangor, Augusta, Bath, Lewiston and other large places, there were parades of children bearing banners inscribed, "Vote for us." More than 30,000 children turned out.

Tomorrow there will be a great demonstration in this city, led by Mrs. Lillian N. Stephens, National president of the W. C. T. U.

Congratulates Ada.

Ada's supply of crystal water from Byrd's mill cost her about a quarter of a million dollars, and that city will never have a shortage of water except its being caused from breakages in pipes. Allen people will now be able to get plenty to drink when they go to the county seat and it will not cost them a farthing, either. We congratulate you, Ada, upon the securing of such an adequate supply of pure water.—Allen Hustler.

OKLAHOMA AGRICULTURAL AND MECHANICAL COLLEGE OPENS

Stillwater, Okla., Sept. 12.—The first convocation of the Oklahoma A. & M. college students for the regular session 1911-12 was held Thursday morning in the college chapel. The room was filled with enthusiastic students, college faculty and officers, and friends of the institution. The true college spirit was manifest in the various class yells, and in the hearty reception accorded the president and the faculty. President Connell in a few concise remarks made clear the real purpose of the college and urged upon all students, new and old, the necessity of entering into all the activities of college life that each one may receive, in the fullest measure, the advantages of a college course.

Class work began Thursday though registration of students continues. The registration to date shows a material gain over the enrollment at this time last year. Judging from the present enrollment, it is expected that more than one thousand regular students will attend A. & M. college this year.

Miss Muriel Wright, who was a student at the summer session of the normal, has registered for the coming term. She will be a member of the senior class which will graduate in the spring.

BAPTIST REVIVAL COMES TO CLOSE

The revival conducted at the Baptist church by Revs. Wolfe and Blankenship closed last evening. As usual the house was packed long before the hour for beginning the services arrived, and the minister held his congregation in the closest attention.

The meeting has been productive of much good. Forty-six additions have been made to the Baptist church, and the old members have been greatly uplifted by the services.

This morning the evangelists left for Halleyville, where they will begin a meeting this evening.

A False Impression.

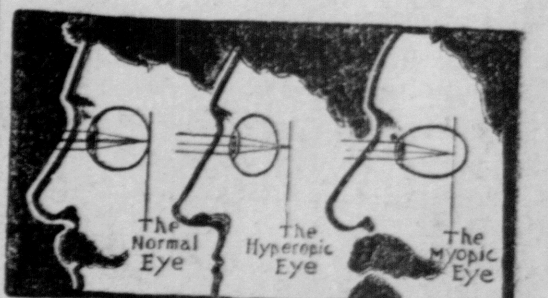

This morning President Briles received word that four young ladies at Francis were planning to go to the normal at Edmond in preference to Ada, because they had been told that music in that school is free. He made a trip to Francis to see them and have a talk before they left.

As a matter of fact, music will not be free in any of the six normals this term, but under the rule laid down by the state board, will be charged for at the rate of $2.00 to $4.00 per month, depending on whether the pupil takes one or two lessons per week. This is a state regulation, and not confined to any one school.

Cotton Receipts.

At 3:15 this afternoon the cotton receipts for the season were 435 bales of which 30 came in today. The compress made a short run this morning, the first of the season.

tainly worth the small sum asked for it.

According to a map published in some of the metropolitan papers, the route of the great aeroplane race from Los Angeles to New York will be via Dallas and Oklahoma City. In that event the contestants will probably fly over Ada, thereby giving our citizens an opportunity to witness a part of the great race.

The electric chair is a queer place to reap a crop, but that is where Beattie will reap his. In his case the reaping time came much earlier than in most instances, but as in every case on record he will not be the only sufferer. His family must bear a part of the disgrace, and it is doubtful if his own sufferings will be any less acute than theirs.

History has a habit of repeating itself in politics as well as along other lines. In 1852 Franklin Pierce won a victory that staggered his opponents.
He carried all but four states, although he was opposed by the hero of the Mexican war, Gen. Scott. In 1856 James Buchanan, also a nominee of the democratic party, won by a majority greatly reduced, two years later the republicans carried the house, and in 1860 the democratic party was swept out of power in all branches of the government. Similarly in 1908 Roosevelt was elected by the heaviest majority ever given a presidential candidate. Four years later the tide had set in the other way and Taft slipped in by a majority greatly reduced. The democrats won the house in 1910, and in 1912 will repeat the performance of the republicans in 1860.

The repeal of the state prohibition law and the enactment of local option statutes in its stead would not have the effect of reducing the political strife in the state nor of keeping down agitation. It would only mean endless local conflicts, such as they have in other local option states, with more bitter feeling generated in every community in Oklahoma than could be eradicated in half a century.

The day of Miracles is past," is the announcement appearing in the Atoka Jeffersonian, successor to the Atoka will no doubt thank their lucky stars that such is the case, for a dirtier sheet than the Miracle never disgraced the newspaper field in Oklahoma.
Republican papers in Oklahoma are going at a discount, anyway. As its name indicates, the Miracle under its new management as become a staunch democratic sheet. J. Y.
Bryce, late of Coalgate is now at the helm.

Newspapers are often criticised by the unthinking on account of typographical errors that slip past the proof reader. An exchange tells a minister who was unusually severe on the newspaper of his town in this regard, and on one occasion when he had a batch of programs for a special service printed, he insisted on reading the proof himself. Imagine his chagrin when soon after the programs were distributed a friends called this attention to the following: "Jesus resigns and Heaven rejoices." He was never heard to criticise a paper after that.

The bootleggers of Wetumka have at last found defenders in the socialists. At a recent meeting of that party held there resolutions were passed denouncing the prosecution of such offenders. Following is a part of the set of resolutions adopted:

"Resolved, That we the Socialists of Wetumka and community do not hesitate and are not afraid to condemn in unmeasured terms the persecutions of a part of our working citizens, the so-called whiskey peddler, and we denounce those who are responsible for dragging them into courts and into the lawyers' clutches, and taking from them a few dollars with which they might be able to feed, clothe and house their hungry children, while overlooking and ignoring greater crimes in this community. And further,
"Resolved, That we the working people of Wetumka and community are getting tired of the oppression that is being perpetrated upon us."

New York, Sept. 11.—When a man charged with disorderly conduct was arraigned by Patrolman Queen before Chief Magistrate in the Adams street court, Brooklyn, today, the court asked:

"What's your name?"
"Thomas King," was the answer.
"Ah," said the Magistrate, "a Queen captures a King."

"Yes, but it wasn't a straight deal," retorted King.
"Sure it was," interrupted Queen.
"This man is a four-flusher."
"What's your business?"
"I dig for a living," answered King.
"So you are a King of Spades," laughed the Magistrate.

"Yes, but beaten by a club," answered King.
"Can you come across with $2?"
"A deuce of a fine," spoke up King.
"but I'll see you." He handed over the money and Clerk Hesterberg raked in the pot.

"I see a joker is no good in this game," said King as he was leaving court.

Normal News

The enrollment of students at the normal began in good earnest this morning and by 3 o'clock 158 had been enrolled. The teachers have been busy classifying the students, and by tomorrow will be in a position to begin work. Of course many others will be enrolled by that time, and within two or three weeks, will reach a figure of which the faculty may be proud.

The meeting of the faculty of the East Central Normal school for the year 1911-12 was held in the library Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock. President Briles addressed the teachers, giving instruction relative to the work for the coming year. He said in part:
"Whatever of success we may have accomplished during the past year has been done, in a large measure, to the co-operation of members of the faculty with the president and with each other and a willing disposition on the part of all those who remain in the faculty for the coming year to bear his or her share of the responsibility of the work, not only of the class room, but of the general discipline and conduct of the entire student body.

Last year I dared to express the hope that we should co-operate with each other with a realization of the fact that we must each participate in the honor and share in the disgrace of each individual member. This year I confidently expect that we shall have the fullest co-operation on the part of each member of the faculty.
In fact, I shall be seriously disappointed if this does not prove the most pleasant year of my whole experience in school work. We ought, as a body of teachers employed by the state to give instruction to those who are to become the teachers of the children of our state, to be able to demonstrate our ability to work together with harmony, each doing well the work of his own department, and at the same time realize that he is a unit of a great educational system.

We cannot too greatly emphasize the teachers' responsibility as an exemplar of correct ideals of life for upon us as teachers in a training school for teachers, rests a greater responsibility than upon any other class of people. Young men and young women who come to us for instruction and training will return to the communities from which they came and impart to those under their care the information which we have given and the ideals which they have formed from contact with us. If you are worthy of the position which you occupy, your life as exemplified by your habits, your daily walk and conversation, what you do not do as well as what you do, will become the ideal of at least a considerable number of the pupils of this school.

President Briles indicated that it was his desire that the teachers should identify themselves more thoroughly with the life and interests of the community. He could see no reason why a teacher in a normal school should not be expected to measure up to the fullest standard of demand of any citizen of the community.

The prospects for the coming year, as outlined by the president, are flattering in the extreme. Correspondence which he has had with county superintendents and prospective pupils indicates that this will be by far the best year of the normal school, and it will be the purpose of the president and members of the faculty to make the work of the school such as that teachers from the state will be attracted to the extent that the East Central state normal will become very soon the largest normal school of the state.

Considerable attention was given to the new course of study, the outline of which had just been received from the state board of education. This course of study has been printed for all of the normal school of the state alike. The organization of a system for the normal schools with a uniform course of study eliminates all unwholesome rivalry among the schools. The only rivalry possible is that which comes from the personnel of the various faculties. The faculty of the school has been very considerably strengthened by the acquisition of new members, and every member of the faculty is ready to undertake the work of the year with renewed interest and enthusiasm and all are agreed that the East Central shall become, that which by right ought to be, the leading normal school in Oklahoma.

It Is the Day of Candid Advertising.

Time was when even reputable merchants lacked full candor in their advertising. It was argued—by people with ridiculous ideas of the aims and purposes of advertising—that the people would only believe a small part of what an advertiser claimed, anyhow, hence it behooved him to exaggerate accordingly, so that after the reader's deductions for exaggerations had been liberally made, a bit of truth would remain.

As this was always a false argument, it has been exploded—to stay exploded!

Self-respecting, thinking people are the people who read ads nowadays.
And to deliberately mis-state a fact in advertising now is simply a species of attempted business suicide.

A store which would thus forfeit the confidence or respect of all honest people would soon find out that there were not enough dishonest people—or of people who would condone dishonest advertising—in this town to support the smallest store in it.

You may read the ads nowadays with the satisfying knowledge that advertisers realize that falsehood is business suicide—unfailingly!

Candid advertising is necessary nowadays.

RELIEF FOR STOMACHS

Stomach Ccses, Indigestion and Dyspepsia Relieved in Few Minutes, Digestit Will Do It.

If your food sours on your stomach, your digestive organs become weak and you suffer from indigestion go to your druggist and get a 50c package of Digestit. Take two tablets or three and you will get relief in a few minutes.
The correct name for indigestion is Food Fermentation—food souring; the digestive organs become weak, there is lack of gastric juice; your food is only half digested, and you become affected with loss of appetite, pressure and fullness after eating, vomiting, nausea, heart-burn, griping in bowels, bad taste in mouth constipation, pain in limbs, sleeplessness, sick headache, belching of gas, biliousness, nervousness, dizziness, or many other similar symptoms.
Almost instant relief is waiting for you. It is merely a matter of going to your druggist and asking for a 50c package of Digestit. Or, if you doubt, write to the Digestit Co., Jackson, Miss., for an order for a full-size package without cost.

LOOKS BAD FOR HOLDERS OF OLD SCHOOL WARRANTS

Oklahoma City, Sept. 9.—The owners of warrants issued by school districts over the state in excess of the legal limits are apparently "holding the sack," according to an opinion from the attorney general to the state superintendent's office, which Superintendent R. H. Wilson is now sending out to school officers over the state. According to the attorney general's ruling there is no such thing as "outstanding indebtedness" of a school district, and any indebtedness incurred in excess of its current income is void. Its creditors apparently have no recourse and will simply have to keep clear of any such paper in the future.
Some boards have endeavored to bond the district on contracts for supplies to be furnished to the present year and paid for in some succeeding year, or to issue warrants now to be paid from the funds of some subsequent year, but both of these proceedings are held to be illegal. Under the terms of senate bill 100, passed by the last legislature, officers issuing excessive warrants may be punished criminally and are also liable for the amount of illegal warrants issued.
The only thing for the districts to do seems to be to wipe the slate clean and start in anew. The repudiation of the illegal warrants need not affect the future credit of the districts as the new form of warrants recommended by the state superintendent, and now in general use, has on the face of the warrant a statement as to the amount of the estimate approved, the total amount of warrants previously issued and the balance still remaining. Whenever the warrant shows that balance has reached zero figure, no one will want to take the warrants and the issuance of an excessive amount thus will be stopped automatically.
The Male Quartette will sing at the DeSota tonight.

HOW PURCELL FARMER FIGHTS BOLL WORMS

Some time since the Register told of the plan adopted by Mr. D. J. Bates, an excellent farmer living north of town, to save his cotton from the ravages of the bollworm and increasing the output of fruit on the plant. Mr. Bates is now in position to report the success of his plan, and is highly elated over his present prospects. He brought in with him last Saturday several limbs taken from his cotton, showing the growth that had been put on since the topping process had been carried out. These limbs conclusively prove the benefit of the topping plan, as they are full of healthy looking young bolls and fresh squares. On one short limb can be counted eight fully formed bolls, all of which have come out since the plant was topped. Mr. Bates says that his cotton will make at least a third more than will other pieces in the same vicinity, that were not topped. His theory is that the topping causes the vitality of the cotton, which would be otherwise expended in producing the top growth of the plant, to be diverted to the limbs already formed, increasing the growth on them and making fruit instead of plant, and he has in his own field a strong argument with which to back his theory. He thinks the topping should be done in the latter part of July or first of August.—Purcell Register.

THE DOCTOR'S QUESTION.

Much Sickness Due to Bowel Disorders.
A doctor's first question when consulted by a patient is, "Are your bowels regular?" He knows that ninety-eight per cent. of illness is attended with inactive bowels and torpid liver, and that this conditions must be removed gently and thoroughly before health can be restored.
Rexall Orderlies are a positive, pleasant and safe remedy for constipation and bowel disorders in general. We are so certain of their great curative value that we promise to return the purchasers' money in every case when they fail to produce entire satisfaction.
Rexall Orderlies are eaten like candy, they act quietly, and have a soothing, strengthening, healing influence on the entire intestinal tract. They do not purge, gripe, cause nausea, flatulence, excessive looseness, diarrhoea or other annoying effects. They are especially good for children weak persons or old folks. Three sizes 50c, 25c and 10c. Sold only at our store—The Rexall Store. Gwin & Mays Drug Co.
Torpid Liver.
Has Henry J. Allen deserted the ranks of the optimists? He says this squabble between Taft and La Follette for the presidential nomination reminds him of the story about two men who fought for the privilege of driving the hearse at the funeral.—Kansas City Journal.

NEW FORM OF LAND GRAFT DISCOVERED

Davis, Okla., Sept. 11.—A new form of graft has been found in the old Indian Territory portion of Oklahoma. Murray county appears to be headquarters for the scheme, that of paying taxes on allotments made to new-born babes where neither the parents nor guardians know anything about the lands or their description. It is believed a number of such allotments are being paid upon with this motive in view. The man, or set of men, doing it hope by paying taxes the required number of years, according to law, to finally acquire title by reason of such tax receipts.
In order to nip in the bud all such illegal schemes, a meeting has been called here to be held Thursday, September 14, at which time Commissioner Lankford and W. M. Malone of the banking department, Jack Love of the corporation commission and T. J. Hartman, president of the state bankers' association, will perfect an organization to safeguard the public against all forms of graft and illegal schemes.
C. C. Caldwell of the Oklahoma State bank of this city stated today that the organization to be perfected next Thursday will employ a corps of able inspectors and detectives whose duty it will be to investigate every off-colored transaction and report to the board. He said every banker in Oklahoma and every mayor will be made honorary members and will assist the association in running down all form of crooked work.

Life's Blessings
Women who use Mother's Friend are saved much of the discomfort and suffering so common with expectant mothers. It is a penetrating oil that thoroughly lubricates every muscle, nerve and tendon involved at such times, and thus promotes physical comfort. It aids nature by expanding the skin and tissues and perfectly prepares the system for the coming of baby. Mother's Friend assures a quick and natural recovery for every woman who uses it. It is for sale at drug stores. Write for free book for expectant mothers.
BRADFIELD REGULATOR CO., Atlanta, Ga.

For the mother in the home to be strong and well, able to devote her time and strength to the rearing of children, is one of life's greatest blessings. Often the bearing of children injures the mother's health if she has not prepared her system in advance for the important event.

The marriage took place three hours after Col. Astor arrived here with Mrs. William H. Force and her daughters from New York on Col. Astor's yacht, Noma. The Rev. Mr. Cooper is a Methodist clergyman and the pastor of a small church here.
There were only a few present at the ceremony, among them being Mr. and Mrs. William H. Force and Mr. Astor's son, Vincent.
After the ceremony it was reported that the ministers received a $10,000 fee each.

The husband, a man of middle age, has been arrested and is being held pending the death of the woman and the coroner's verdict. According to Brown's statement, he and his wife were asleep on the porch and he awakened suddenly to see a man standing over Mrs. Brown and striking her on the head with an iron club. He saw the intruder and struck at him and he dodged and ran to the door for his gun, but that the man whom he took to be a burglar, grabbed Brown's trousers from off a chair and fled into the night.

Sold Twenty Tons of Grapes.

Mr. Hochstrasser has disposed of nearly all the product of his vineyard at good prices and has gone to Texas accompanied by his wife for a little well earned recreation. Mr. H. is a man who has very little to say in regard to his own achievements and it was only by questioning him upon the subject that we learned that the output from his vineyard this year was more than twenty tons.
Figuring the price at 4 cents per pound you may compute the profits.
With such object lessons as this it seems strange that people who own land in this locality continue to neglect the raising of fruit. Every farm has upon it waste patches that could readily be turned into grape arbors and peach orchards. In three or four years these waste patches would become the most portable part of the farm. An acre of grapes, in a favorable year, will produce the equivalent of 15 bales of cotton and the market for grapes and other fruit is always good.—Francis Wigwam.

Walsh will tell You how to Wiggle your third finger.
Yours truly.
